[11th August 1956

THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM: I welcome the suggestion and I have absolutely no objection to accepting it. Acceptance of the suggestion means that the House should adjourn now and meet again on Monday. I hope the Hon. Speaker also will agree to it.

SRI S. SWAYAMPRAKASAM: We will have to bear in mind the curtailment of the time allotted for the other items of legislative business consequent on our encroaching upon that time.

THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM: I had already had that in view. I have been advised by the Law Department that the Tanjore Tenants and Pannaiyal Protection (Amendment) Bill, 1956, cannot be gone through before taking up the Madras Cultivating Tenants (Payment of Fair Rent) Bill. Therefore the consideration of the former Bill will have to be postponed and I have given notice of it to the Legislature. Therefore, we will have time and there may not be any need to curtail the time allotted for the other items.

SRI K. VINAYAKAM: On a point of information, Sir. It is said that if we adjourn now, this time could be made up by not taking up the Tanjore Tenants and Pannaiyal Protection (Amendment) Bill. Will there be any encroachment upon the time allotted for non-official business? If the assurance that there will not be any encroachment upon non-official time is given, we have no objection to the adjustment.

THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM: I will only say it is not likely.

SRI V. BALAKRISHNAN: What is the purpose for which the adjournment is sought and proposed to be granted?

MR. SPEAKER: The hon. Member should have listened to what the Leader of the Opposition said.

SRI P. RAMAMURTHI: I find it difficult to make a speech now, as I am not feeling well, apart from my throat trouble.

MR. SPEAKER: I also feel that some of the hon. Members are overworked and we see a very thin House just now. In pursuance of the wish of the House, the House will now adjourn and meet again at 9 a.m. on Monday, the 13th August 1956.

2-05 p.m. The House then adjourned.
